Psalm 149:4

CASEY'S DAY

Do you have something you're really proud of that you like to show off? Maybe a drawing hung on the fridge, a really good grade, or a trophy on your bookshelf. We display these things because seeing them brings us joy, and we want other people to share our joy as well. It doesn't matter if it's the first time you've looked at it or the one hundredth time, there's just something about it that makes you smile.

God feels the same way about you! That's what Psalm 149 tells us. You might worry that God gets easily annoyed with you or just loves you because—being God—he has to. But the Bible says:

God likes you.

He really likes you.

You.

All of you.

From your head to your toes, God likes you.

God can't wait for you to tell him about your day. He loves to watch you run and play. He laughs at the jokes you tell. He celebrates your accomplishments. If he had a cellphone, God would be that parent who shows off a picture of you to anyone who will look. He doesn't stay with you every moment of your life because he has to; God wants to be with you. How incredible is that?

Take time today to do something you enjoy. Ride your bike. Play a game. Sing. Whatever it is you like to do, think about God delighting in you doing it.

Prayer

Dear God, thank you for not only loving me but also liking me. May the things I do and the words I say bring you joy today. Amen.
