Have you ever thought about your favorite stories? Maybe you love tales about brave heroes or epic adventures. Well, guess what? There's an epic adventure story that we are part of! This story is the greatest one ever told because it's God's story. From the beginning, God has been inviting people to join in, including you and me!

Let me tell you about a cool story I read in the Bible. People brought their little kids to Jesus because they wanted him to bless them. But then the disciples, who were some of his friends, said, "Hey! Don't bother Jesus! He's too busy!" But then Jesus said, "Let the little children come to me! The kingdom of God belongs to them!" How awesome is that?

So, here's your challenge for this week: Be a God Detective! Look around you and try to spot God's story in your world. Maybe you see a friend helping someone or someone sharing their lunch. Perhaps you notice a stranger doing something nice! Write down what you see in a notebook. It's like being on a treasure hunt for God's fingerprints in your life!

We're part of God's fantastic adventure, and we're not just living our own story; we're in a grand tale that God is telling every day. How cool is that?

Prayer

Dear God, thank you for making me a part of your incredible story! Help me see what you're doing all around me this week. I want to follow you and be part of your big plan! Amen.
