1 Timothy 4:7-16

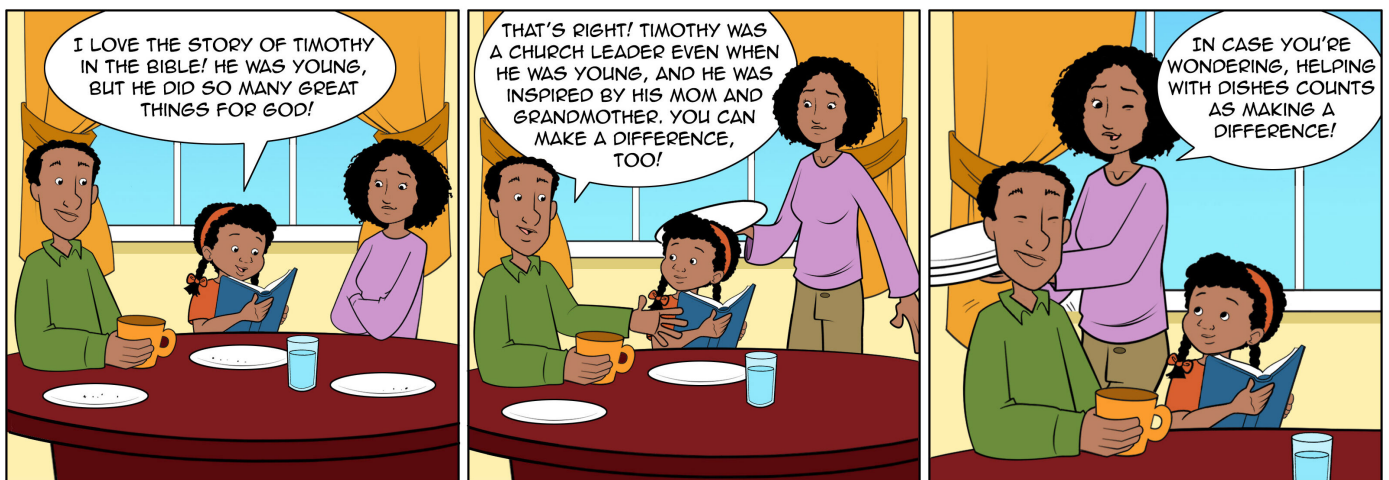

Memory Verse

¹² Don't let anyone make fun of you, just because you are young. Set an example for other followers by what you say and do, as well as by your love, faith, and purity.

CASEY'S DAY

Mallory was an eleven-year-old swimmer with a big heart and a big goal. She and her relay team swam 12.5 miles/20 kilometers across Lake Erie to raise money for a retreat center for kids with special needs. On a warm August afternoon, the Kids Corner crew filmed their fantastic story for a Kids in Action video.

After the swim, Mallory sat down for an interview. When she heard that the key verse of the film would be 1 Timothy 4:12, her face lit up. "I really like that verse," she said. "It inspires young people like me to actually do things and then set an example for other people."

A long time ago, Timothy was a young person like Mallory. He learned about faith from his grandmother, Lois, and his mother, Eunice. Timothy loved God and became a leader in the early church because of his strong faith. Paul, a mentor and friend, encouraged him to do great things for God.

Just like Timothy and Mallory, you can be a part of God's big story too!

- Maybe you love nature and want to plant a garden or care for animals.
- Maybe you love music, art, or dance and can share God's beauty through your creativity.
- Maybe you have a heart for helping others and want to serve your family, friends, and neighbors.

God has given you special gifts and calls you to use them to make a difference!

If you're not sure how to start, find a mentor—a parent, grandparent, teacher, coach, or church leader who can help you grow in faith and action. Parents and grandparents, is there a young person in your life who needs encouragement? Be a mentor, just like Paul was for Timothy!

Prayer

God, thank you for kids like Mallory who love you and want to help others. Help me find ways to use my gifts to serve you. Bring people into my life who can help me grow in faith. Amen.
